199.1 (1) A racing official or racing participant violates these rules if

- (a) that person has an illicit drug in their possession at a race track,
- (b) that person traffics or attempts, conspires or counsels a person to traffic at a race track,
- (c) that person uses, promotes or sells instruments for illicit drug use at a race track,
- (d) a test of a sample of bodily fluid from that person shows that the sample contains evidence of an illicit drug, or
- (e) that person consumes or assists or counsels another person to consume an illicit drug at a race track.

(2) A racing official or racing participant violates these rules if they are convicted of

- (a) an offence under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, or
- (b) section 462.2 of the Criminal Code (Canada).

(3) In these rules

- (a) “possession” and “traffic” have the same meaning as they have in the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act (Canada);

- (b) “consume”, “illicit drug” “instruments for illicit drug use”, “illicit drug use” and “sell” have the same meaning as they have in section 462.1 of the Criminal Code (Canada).

Refusing to provide a sample

199.2 A person who refuses to provide a sample when required to do so in accordance with the Act violates these rules and is liable to the same penalty to which the person would have been liable if a sample had been provided and the sample had tested positive.

Providing false samples

199.3 A person violates these rules who

- (a) provides a false sample;
- (b) provides a sample that is not their own sample;
- (c) possesses at a race track any substance that may or could alter, interfere or impede the correct giving of, testing or analysis of a sample.

Violators to pay for retesting

199.4 The cost of a 2nd and subsequent tests of a sample of a person who has previously violated these rules must be paid by the person providing the sample at a rate per test determined by *Horse Racing Alberta.

HRA counsellor’s advice

199.5 The judges/stewards board may request the HRA counsellor to provide a report or an opinion on any matter respecting

- (a) the treatment and rehabilitation program of a person and their compliance with the program;
- (b) the likelihood of rehabilitation of a person;
- (c) the testing or periodic testing of samples provided by a person.

Publication of names of violators

199.6 The judges/stewards board may direct the names of a person who violates these rules, the violation, and the sanction imposed to be published in a manner directed by the judges/stewards board.

Violation directives

199.7 (1) Horse Racing Alberta may issue directives with respect to

- (a) the sanction warranted by violation of a particular rule or rules;

- (b) the sanction warranted by 2nd or subsequent violations of the same or other rule or rules;
 - (c) programs available for treatment or rehabilitation of violators who seek treatment and rehabilitation and the consequence for those who do not seek treatment and rehabilitation.
- (2) Violation directives issued by Horse Racing Alberta are intended to provide a framework for the consistent imposition of sanctions for violation of particular rules, recognizing that each case merits individual treatment and judges/stewards have discretion to impose a range of sanctions under rule 195 [Findings and sanctions].
