Payne Lake (lake)

NOT

Paine Lake (lake)

Located at:

Sec. 2, 9, 10, 11, 15, 16 Twp. 2, Rge. 28, W4.

(49° 06' 39" N & 113° 39' 13" W)

Approximately 85 km south-west of Lethbridge.

The name commemorates the Payne family, who were early homesteaders in the region. William Payne immigrated to Winnipeg from Britain in 1884 and enlisted in the North West Mounted Police. Following the North West Rebellion, he was part of the detail charged with guarding Louis Riel and escorting him to Regina. In 1889, William Payne was discharged from the force while stationed at Fort Macleod. He filed for homestead near this lake at 12-2-28-W4. He arranged for his parents and brothers, Frank and Fred, to join him. Fred filed for homestead on NE4-2-28-W4 and Frank on SW10-2-28-W4, which was immediately adjacent to the lake. At one point the name Payneville was considered for a nearby community, but the name Mountain View was chosen instead. The lake has also been known historically as “Mami Lake” (from the Blackfoot meaning “fish”), and “Driggs Lake” (after another early homesteader), but due to its intermittent nature it was not officially named. It was deemed necessary to officially name the lake following the construction of two dams, which made the feature a permanent lake. In 1942, the name “Paine Lake” was adopted based on the spelling found in an 1892 surveyor’s field book. In 1972, researchers discovered the spelling error, but no changes to the name were made. In the late-1990s, descendants of the Payne family requested that name be changed to reflect the correct spelling of the family name.

NOT

Sec. 28, Twp. 26, Rge. 2, W5.

(51° 14' 56" N & 114° 13' 39" W)

Approximately 25 km north-west of Calgary city centre.

This name is descriptive and refers to the height of the feature, which made it an ideal vantage point for native scouts to survey the surrounding countryside and for use as a signaling point. The name was first recorded by the Geological Survey of Canada in 1884 and was officially adopted in 1956. The feature is also known to the Blackfoot as sah-a-misapi. The location of the hill known as Spy Hill has been debated. For many years it was believed to be the high lands located at either Sections 24-25, Township 25, Range 3, West of the Fifth Meridian or in Section 28, Township 26, Range 2, West of the Fifth Meridian. More current research has determined that the name is most properly identified with the hill located at Section 28, Township 26, Range 2, West of the Fifth Meridian.

This peak is located on Ehagay Nakoda between the peaks known as Ha Ling Peak and Mount Lawrence Grassi. The name is intended to commemorate all of the miners that have worked in the Canmore region. During the public consultation process regarding the naming of the Ehagay Nakoda massif and the renaming of Ha Ling Peak, there was vocal support for naming a mountain or peak to commemorate the area's miners. This peak was chosen as it was highly visible and had no known names associated with it.
