McLean Lake
(lake)

Located at:

Sec. 34, 35, Twp. 08, Rge. 21, W5

(49° 41' 47" N & 112° 45' 22" W)

In Lethbridge County near the eastern boundary of the City of Lethbridge.

The name of this small lake commemorates Archibald J. “Archie” McLean. Archie McLean is best known as one of the “Big Four” sponsors of the inaugural Calgary Stampede in 1912. McLean worked as a range rider for the CY Ranch near Taber and eventually became ranch foreman and a managing partner. In 1909, McLean ran in the provincial election for the constituency of Lethbridge District. Despite not campaigning personally, he won with 56 percent of the vote. He soon joined the Liberal party and was re-elected in 1913 and 1917. He served in Cabinet as Provincial Secretary (1910-1917), Minister of Municipal Affairs (1911-1912), Minister of Agriculture, Food and Rural Development (1914-1921) and Minister of Public Works (1917-1921). He is credited with starting Alberta’s early highway system. He was defeated in the 1921 election and began ranching in the Fort Macleod region. Archie McLean died on October 19, 1933.

The lake has been locally and unofficially known as McLean Lake for many decades due to its location within the McLean School District No. 2900. The school district was named for Archie McLean, who was a prominent local leader and MLA at the time.

The lake has also been known historically as “Jail Lake” due to its location on the grounds of the Provincial Jail (now the Lethbridge Correctional Centre).
