Anû Kathâ Îpa (Bald Eagle Peak) (peak)

Located at:

LSD 10, Sec.16, Twp. 25, Rge. 10, West of the 5th Meridian
(51° 08' 15" N & 115° 20' 30" W)

A shoulder of Mount Charles Stewart. Located near the hamlet of Harvie Heights, approximately five kilometres north of Canmore and five kilometres east of the Banff National Park entry gates.

Anû Kathâ Îpa (Bald Eagle Peak) is an official dual name, the first part being in the Stoney language and the second part being the English translation. Both names are official, but they should be used together with the Stoney name first followed by the English name in parentheses.

The name is a traditional Stoney Nakoda name and is a reference to local fauna.

RESCINDED

Stoney Squaw Mountain (mountain)

Located at:

LSD 04, Sec.11, Twp. 26, Rge. 12, West of the 5th Meridian
(51° 11' 58" N & 115° 34' 42" W)

In Banff National Park, approximately two kilometres NNW of the Banff townsite.

The name has been in use since at least 1884. The name is said to be derived from a Stoney Nakoda story about a Stoney woman caring for her ill or wounded husband in a lodge at the foot of the mountain.

The name is being rescinded due to its derogatory nature.

Signed 27th day of July, A.D. 2021.

Lyon Creek (creek)

NOT

Lyons Creek (creek)

Located at:

LSD 16, Sec.35, Twp. 07, Rge. 04, West of the 5th Meridian
(49° 36' 33" N & 114° 25' 52" W)

Flows into the Crowsnest River at the Blairmore townsite.

The name is being changed to reflect the correct spelling of Henry E. Lyon's name.

The creek is named for Lieutenant-Colonel Henry E. Lyon (1874-1959), an early settler in the region. Lyon was postmaster at Blairmore from 1899 to 1919 and was elected the first mayor of Blairmore when it was incorporated in 1911. During the First World War, Lyon raised an infantry battalion, the 192nd (Crow's Nest Pass) Battalion, made up of men from the Crowsnest Pass area.

The name Lyon Creek was recorded in the 1901 township plan of J.E. Woods of the Dominion Land Survey (DLS), but the name was changed to Lyons Creek in the 1906 field notes of L.T. Bray, DLA. The Geographic Board of Canada approved the name as Lyons Creek in 1915.

In 2020, a request was received from a resident of the Crowsnest Pass to change the spelling of the name to accurately reflect Henry E. Lyon's name.

Signed 12th day of August, A.D. 2021.

DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

For the purpose of this section, with respect to a claim for loss of or damage to the automobile and its equipment, the Insured is the owner of the automobile, and with respect to a claim for loss of or damage to contents, the Insured is the owner of the contents.

The Insurer will pay that portion of the total loss or damage that is equal to the percentage to which the Insured or driver was not at fault for the accident, less any applicable Direct Compensation for Property Damage deductible.

DEDUCTIBLE CLAUSE

The Insured is not permitted to sue anyone (for instance an at-fault motorist) to recover this deductible. If there is loss of or damage to both the automobile and its contents, the deductible will first be applied to the automobile loss or damage. If there is any remaining deductible, the remainder will be applied to the contents loss or damage. The deductible applies separately to each automobile that is insured.

For the purpose of this section, with respect to a claim for loss of or damage to the automobile and its equipment, the Insured is the owner of the automobile, and with respect to a claim for loss of or damage to contents, the Insured is the owner of the contents.

The Insurer will pay that portion of the total loss or damage that is equal to the percentage to which the Insured or driver was not at fault for the accident, less any applicable Direct Compensation for Property Damage deductible.

The Insured is not permitted to sue anyone (for instance an at-fault motorist) to recover this deductible. If there is loss of or damage to both the automobile and its contents, the deductible will first be applied to the automobile loss or damage. If there is any remaining deductible, the remainder will be applied to the contents loss or damage. The deductible applies separately to each automobile that is insured.

EXCLUSIONS

The Insurer shall not be liable under this section

- (a) for any amount in excess of coverages referenced in the Insurance Act (Automobile Insurance Subpart) relating to nuclear energy hazards; or
- (b) for any claim arising from contamination of property carried in the automobile.

- (6) not set up any defence to a claim that might not be set up if the Policy were a motor vehicle liability policy issued in the province or territory of Canada in which the accident occurred.

AGREEMENTS OF INSURED

Where indemnity is provided by this section, every person insured by this Policy:

- (1) by acceptance of this Policy, constitutes and appoints the Insurer as the insured person's irrevocable attorney to appear and defend in any province or territory of Canada in which action is brought against the insured person arising out of the ownership, use or operation of the automobile as a transportation network automobile;
- (2) shall reimburse the Insurer, upon demand, in the amount which the Insurer has paid by reason of the provisions of any statute relating to automobile insurance and which the Insurer would not otherwise be liable to pay under the Policy.

SECTION A.1 – DIRECT COMPENSATION FOR PROPERTY DAMAGE

Where section 585.1 of the Insurance Act applies and the loss or damage arises from the use or operation of a transportation network automobile, the Insurer agrees to indemnify the Insured under this section as though the Insured were a third party for loss of or damage to the automobile owned by the Insured, its equipment, and its contents if not carried for reward, and for loss of use of the automobile, equipment and contents in accordance with the Insurance Act and regulations made under the Insurance Act.

For the purposes of this section, use or operation of the automobile as a transportation network automobile means:

- (a) anytime a transportation network driver operating a transportation network automobile is logged onto a transportation network for the purposes of accepting requests for transportation services for compensation from prospective passenger(s); or
- (b) anytime from the moment a transportation network driver operating a transportation network automobile has accepted a ride request through a transportation network, continuing while such transportation network driver is enroute to pick up prospective passenger(s) to provide transportation services for compensation, and ending when the first passenger enters the transportation network automobile or a trip is cancelled whichever is later; or
- (c) anytime from the moment a transportation network driver operating a transportation network automobile has passenger(s) in a transportation network automobile, continuing while such passenger(s) are being transported for compensation, and ending when the last passenger departs from the transportation network automobile.

For the purpose of this section, with respect to a claim for loss of or damage to the automobile and its equipment, the Insured is the owner of the automobile, and with respect to a claim for loss of or damage to contents, the Insured is the owner of the contents.

The Insurer will pay that portion of the total loss or damage that is equal to the percentage to which the transportation network driver was not at fault for the accident, less any applicable Direct Compensation for Property Damage deductible.

DEDUCTIBLE CLAUSE

Each occurrence causing loss or damage covered under this section shall give rise to a separate claim in respect of which the Insurer's liability shall be limited to the amount of loss or damage in excess of the Direct Compensation for Property Damage deductible, if any, stated in Section A.1 of Item 4 of the Policy or in the Declaration of Automobile Insurance multiplied by the percentage to which the transportation network driver of the automobile was determined not at fault for the accident under the regulations. The Insured is not permitted to sue anyone (for instance an at-fault motorist) to recover this deductible. If there is loss of or damage to both the automobile and its contents, the deductible will first be applied to the automobile loss or damage. If there is any remaining deductible, the remainder will be applied to the contents loss or damage. The deductible applies separately to each automobile that is insured.

EXCLUSIONS

The Insurer shall not be liable under this section

- (a) for any amount in excess of coverages referenced in the Insurance Act (Automobile Insurance Subpart) relating to nuclear energy hazards;
- (b) for any claim arising from contamination of property carried in the automobile; or
- (c) for any loss or damage sustained while a transportation network driver operating a transportation network automobile is logged onto a transportation network for the purposes of accepting requests for transportation services for compensation from prospective passenger(s) but has not accepted a request to transport passenger(s) unless the insurer of an owner's policy issued to a transportation network driver or transportation network automobile owner has denied liability for the loss or damage.

See also General Provisions, Definitions, Exclusions and Statutory Conditions of this Policy.

The coverage for benefits under this Section B is primary until such time as the insurer of an owner's policy issued to a transportation network driver or transportation network automobile owner accepts liability for the benefits.

For the purposes of this section, use or operation of the automobile as a transportation network automobile means:

- (a) anytime a transportation network driver operating a transportation network automobile is logged onto a transportation network for the purposes of accepting requests for transportation services for compensation from prospective passenger(s); or
- (b) anytime from the moment a transportation network driver operating a transportation network automobile has accepted a ride request through a transportation network, continuing while such transportation network driver is enroute to pick up prospective passenger(s) to provide transportation services for compensation, and ending when the first passenger enters the transportation network automobile or a trip is cancelled whichever is later; or

 - (i) unless that person is for the time being either authorized by law or qualified to drive or operate the automobile, or

Requirements Where Loss or Damage to Persons or Property

 - (a) promptly give to the insurer written notice, with all available particulars, of any accident involving loss or damage to persons or property and of any claim made on account of the accident,
 - (b) verify by statutory declaration, if required by the insurer, that the claim arose out of the use or operation of the automobile as a transportation network automobile and that the person operating or responsible for the operation of the automobile at the time of the accident is a person insured under the contract,
 - (c) forward immediately to the insurer every letter, document, advice or writ received by the insured from or on behalf of the claimant, and
 - (d) in addition to the requirement of (a), promptly give to the insurer the precise times that a transportation network driver logged onto a transportation network for the purposes of accepting requests for transportation services for compensation from prospective passengers(s) and logged out of a transportation network.
- (2) The insured must not
 - (a) voluntarily assume any liability or settle any claim except at the insured's own cost, or
 - (b) interfere in any negotiations for settlement or in any legal proceeding.

Requirements Where Loss or Damage to the Automobile

4. (1) When loss of or damage to the automobile occurs, the insured must, if the loss or damage is covered by the contract,
- (a) promptly give notice of the loss or damage in writing to the insurer with fullest information obtainable at the time,
 - (b) at the expense of the insurer, and as far as reasonably possible, protect the automobile from further loss or damage, and
 - (c) deliver to the insurer within 90 days after the date of the loss or damage a statutory declaration stating, to the best of the insured's knowledge and belief, the place, time, cause and amount of the loss or damage, the interest of the insured and of all others in the automobile, the encumbrances on the automobile, all other insurance, whether valid or not, covering the automobile and that the loss or damage did not occur through any wilful act or neglect, procurement, means or connivance of the insured.
- (2) Any further loss or damage accruing to the automobile directly or indirectly from a failure to protect it as required under subparagraph (1) of this condition is not recoverable under the contract.
- (3) No repairs, other than those that are immediately necessary for the protection of the automobile from further loss or damage, may be undertaken and no physical evidence of the loss or damage may be removed
- (a) without the written consent of the insurer, or
 - (b) until the insurer has had a reasonable opportunity to make the inspection for which provision is made in Statutory Condition 5.

Examination of Insured

- (4) The insured must submit to examination under oath and must produce for examination at any reasonable place and time designated by the insurer or its representative all documents in the insured's possession or control that relate to the matters in question, and the insured must permit extracts and copies of the documents to be made.

Insurer Liable for Cash Value of Automobile

- (5) The insurer is not liable for more than the actual cash value of the automobile at the time any loss or damage occurs, and the loss or damage must be ascertained or estimated according to that actual cash value with proper deductions for depreciation, however caused, and must not exceed the amount that it would cost to repair or replace the automobile, or any part of the automobile, with material of similar kind and quality, but if any part of the automobile is obsolete and unavailable, the liability of the insurer in respect of the automobile is limited to the value of that part at the time of loss or damage, not exceeding the maker's latest list price.

Repair or Replacement

- (6) Except where a dispute resolution process has been initiated, the insurer, instead of making payment, may, within a reasonable time, repair, rebuild or replace the property damaged or lost with other of similar kind and quality if, within 7 days after the receipt of the proof of loss, it gives written notice of its intention to do so.

No Abandonment, Salvage

- (7) There must be no abandonment of the automobile to the insurer without the insurer's consent.
- (8) If the insurer exercises the option to replace the automobile or pays the actual cash value of the automobile, the salvage, if any, vests in the insurer.

In Case of Disagreement

- (9) In the event of disagreement as to the nature and extent of the repairs and replacements required, or as to their adequacy, if effected, or as to the amount of the loss or damage, those questions must be determined by a dispute resolution process as provided under the Insurance Act before there can be recovery under the contract, whether the right to recover under the contract is disputed or not, and independently of all other questions.
- (10) There is no right to a dispute resolution process until
- (a) a specific demand for it is made in writing, and
 - (b) the proof of loss has been delivered.

Inspection of Automobile

Time and Manner of Payment of Insurance Money

6. (1) The insurer must pay the insurance money for which it is liable under the contract within 60 days after the proof of loss has been received by it or, where a dispute resolution process is conducted under Statutory Condition 4(9), within 15 days after the decision is rendered.

When Action May Be Brought

- (2) The insured may not bring an action to recover the amount of a claim under the contract unless the requirements of Statutory Conditions 3 and 4 are complied with or until the amount of the loss has been ascertained as provided for under

Statutory Conditions 3 and 4 or by a judgment against the insured after trial of the issue, or by agreement between the parties with the written consent of the insurer.

Who May Give Notice and Proofs of Claim

7. Notice of claim may be given and proofs of claim may be made by the agent of the insured named in this contract in the case of absence or inability of the insured to give the notice or make the proof, such absence or inability being satisfactorily accounted for or, in the like case or if the insured refuses to do so, by a person to whom any part of the insurance money is payable.

Termination

8. (1) The contract may be terminated
- (a) by the insurer giving to the insured 15 days' notice of termination by recorded mail or 5 days' written notice of termination personally delivered, or
 - (b) by the insured at any time on request.
- (2) If the contract is terminated by the insurer,
- (a) the insurer must refund the excess of premium actually paid by the insured over the prorated premium for the expired time, but in no event, may the prorated premium for the expired time be less than any minimum retained premium specified, and
 - (b) the refund must accompany the notice unless the premium is subject to adjustment or determination as to the amount, in which case the refund must be made as soon as practicable.
- (3) If the contract is terminated by the insured, the insurer must refund as soon as practicable the excess of premium actually paid by the insured over the short rate premium for the expired time, but in no event may the short rate premium for the expired time be deemed to be less than any minimum retained premium specified.
- (4) The 15-day period referred to in subparagraph 1(a) of this condition starts to run on the day the recorded letter or notification of it is delivered to the insured's postal address.

Notice
