In order to remove a property from the public auction, all of the outstanding property tax arrears must be paid to The City of Calgary in guaranteed funds BEFORE September 22, 2022.

Each parcel with municipal property taxes remaining unpaid as of the date of the auction will be offered for sale at the public auction subject to a reserve price (the minimum price at which The City of Calgary will be willing to sell the property at the public auction).

The properties being offered for sale at the public auction are being offered on an "as is, where is" basis and The City of Calgary makes no representations and gives no warranty whatsoever with respect to any property being offered for sale at the public auction.

GST is payable on all applicable properties sold at the public auction. The full terms and conditions of sale are available online at www.calgary.ca/taxsale.

No terms and conditions of sale will be considered other than those specified by The City of Calgary, therefore, no bid will be accepted where the bidder attempts to attach conditions to the sale.

The City of Calgary may, after the public auction, become the owner of any property that is not sold at the public auction.

Updates in regards to the auction will be available at www.calgary.ca/taxsale, along with a list of the property addresses reserve bids, meeting room details and the full terms and conditions applicable to the tax sale.

Dated at Calgary, Alberta, June 14, 2022.

Michael Perkins, Manager, Tax, Receivable & Payable, Finance.
